Assessment strategy	Weight, %	Deadline	Assessment criteria
Tests	30	During semester	Two Multiple choice tests (each test – 15 questions) on the topics discussed during the lectures and practical sessions before. Questions in multiple choice part will have the same weight for the exam grade (1 point x 15 questions x 2 tests=30). The students will be asked to select a correct answer from the three choices offered as a list and/or the students will be asked to insert a necessary word/phrase in the sentence.
Participation in class activities	10	During semester	Discussion questions and case-study: The assessment will also be based on the capability to prepare for debate and to effectively orally present and discuss the jurisprudence of the international institutions, orally provide answers to the quiz questions, to raise important questions, to provide own legal insights and arguments in a logical and structured manner, to critically assess the discussed legal issues, to provide clear arguments in support of the points made, to provide other critical remarks and to contribute to other participants' ideas.
Written examination	60	During exam session	Assessment of written exam consists of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- 40 % - Students will provide answers to 20 Multiple Choice test questions. Questions in multiple choice part will have the same weight for the exam grade (2 points x 20 questions=40). The students will be asked to select a correct answer from the three choices offered as a list and/or the students will be asked to insert a necessary word/phrase in the sentence. The assessment of multiple choice questions will be aimed at the student's capability to assess his/her higher order cognition, i.e. synthesis, creative thinking and problem solving, based on the knowledge of the subject and abilities acquired during the course.</li> <li>- 20 % - Students will answer to one simulation case in writing (two batches of questions will be posed in the simulation case). The assessment of simulation case will be based on the student's capability to provide arguments in a clear, structured, logical manner, to base his/her arguments on relevant legal provisions and case-law, to explain possibly different opinions of the academic debate, to provide his/her own insights and to base them on his/her own reasonable and convincing argumentation.</li> </ul>
